HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Brentwood Hills just celebrated our 58th Anniversary! The journey began when 11 individuals met to discuss planting a church in south Nashville. The dream became a reality when 27 people gathered for a mid-week service on Wednesday May 18, 1955. By Sunday the number had grown to 52! Today that rich tradition continues as we gather to serve God and share the message of Jesus from 5120 Franklin Road.

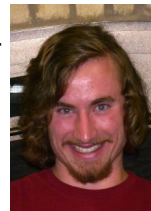

In the early days, whenever the church community would gather they always sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" to conclude their time together. Today we are still bound together by that same "love of Christ"! God continues to work among his people at Brentwood Hills as we enjoy a year of HOPE---Helping Others Prepare for Eternity as we continue to share Light and Love on our Journey to the Son!
