Iglesia de Cristo en Grandview

Roberto and Ginger Santiago are beginning their third year leading the ministry at Iglesia de Cristo en Grandview. They with God’s help have overcome many obstacles and have touched the community around them. Fifteen baptisms have taken place since Roberto has begun preaching. Below, Willian Zaldivar and Ranel Garcia were baptized last Monday night. Willian along with his wife, Gina have two young boys. A red wagon from Bill Pauley was given to one of Willian’s boys during Christmas. (Dick Garner shared the story during one of our holiday devotionals.) Willian says his son carries every single one of his toys in the wagon and pulls it everywhere he goes.

This church is quickly growing as the number of children at Grandview has greatly increased, with two or three children when the church first began to around seventeen on Wednesday nights and over thirty on Sunday mornings.

Roberto and Ginger’s great work is evident by Grandview church. Soccer teams, English building for funerals are just some of the many influencing the community for the good. Our new we had 21 new students and 30 returning semester received their graduation certificates. of our deacons serving in this ministry along with Garner continue to mentor and serve in this to serve please contact one of the leaders or the lives that are being touched by the speaking classes and the use of the ways Roberto and his church family are English classes began last Tuesday, and students. Several students from the fall Kevin Collins and John Beyer are two many other volunteers. Dick and Jan ministry. If you would like to volunteer Roberto@brentwoodhills.org
