Annual Catfish Dinner to benefit Inner City Ministry— You can make a difference! Each year, people from all over middle Tennessee gather at the Tennessee State Fairgrounds to raise support for the summer leadership development programs of Nashville Inner City Ministry. Over two nights (Thursday, March 27 and Friday, March 28, 6:30 p.m.), thousands of people enjoy the great food and fellowship while raising money to send at-risk youth from our inner city communities to camp, provide interns to mentor and support them and fund other summer activities. If you would like to participate in this great event by hosting a table, you may contact Jim Sutton (at 599-3663) or "Catfish" Jim Burnette (at 337-0762). Sometimes the teachers are not in their classrooms yet, and without supervision children may make unwise choices. It is for the safety and protection of your children that you need to make sure an adult is in the classroom before you leave your child. Please help us keep your child safe.
