April 27, 2008

Administrative Professionals Day

Administrative Professionals Day was originally created in 1952 by the International Association of Administrative Professionals. Celebrated on the Wednesday of Administrative Professionals Week---the last full week in April---its a day set aside for honoring those wonderful, dedicated people who do so much to keep businesses and churches running at peak efficiency.

Here at Brentwood Hills, we are blessed to have a wonderful administrative team! Anchored by Diane Kennedy who has served this church for 28 years as our church secretary. For years, it was her and maybe a minister on site each day...now it is "grand central station" each day! She knows the people of this church better than anyone. She handles all of our publications and membership services as well as correspondence and other duties for several of our ministers.

If you call during business hours, usually Ophelia Sliger answers the phone. From a part-time receptionist to a full time receptionist, Ophelia now works with Barry Estes, our Director of Facilities and Michael Linn our Assistant to the Director, in coordinating our schedule and other tasks related to our facility, and whenever we need a staff luncheon or breakfast---she is head cook! Fawn Bauer has been working a few hours each week answering the phone and helping with special projects to support our children's and youth ministries.

Jane Forrester works part-time/full-time collecting all of our bills and invoices and writing the checks to pay the bills! She also helps out answering the phone; she had coordinated our tape ministry for years...now Ophelia is helping in that area, and Jane helps to back-up anyone in their work...and she is always asking "is there something I can do for you?"

A few years ago...Judy Crumbliss and Amy Bowman joined our staff as Administrative Assistants. Judy's work is divided where she is to spend 80% of her time working in our Children's and Youth Ministry. Her other duties include providing support for our Worship Team. Amy cut back to part-time last year, and she now spends most of her time assisting in our Children's Ministry, while still supporting our data base system, weddings and back up for other staff members. Her flexible schedule, and her knowledge of several jobs is very helpful when staff members have to take off from their jobs.

The Youth Program will have three interns this summer Megan Dickerson, Philip Groves, and Ben Rawlins. Meanwhile, Betsy Burris will return as a part time assistant in the Children's Ministry area.

Marisela Jimenez was hired part-time last year to serve as the secretary at Grandview. She is a valuable addition to our Hispanic Ministry. Our newest Administrative Assistant is Sarah Wise. Sarah joined our staff in January to serve as my assistant and to help with all general church projects...that means that we have something new happening everyday!

What a great administrative staff, and I speak for all of our ministers and directors---to say thank you for all that you do for us individually and for this great church family! We are blessed to have such a quality support staff that each day are Light and Love for each of us as we continue our Journey to the Son! ifs

Habitat House Dedication was April 20, 2008

Thank you to everyone that attended the Karyn Henley Workshop. Audio of the Workshop will be downloaded on our web very shortly. If you need CD copies, please email Sarah Wise at sarah@brentwoodhills.org Let's continue to pray that we all will Strengthen our Faith daily! Sybil cuts the ribbon on her new home. (picture on the left) This Sunday afternoon, a house warming will be held in our reception area between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. sponsored by the Morning Star mentors. Details are on the back of the Family News.
