A Message from the Elders

Beginning the week of September 20th, the Nashville area women's Bible Study Fellowship Group (BSF) will begin using our facility for their weekly Bible study. Nearly 500 women and children will be meeting in our facility each Wednesday morning to study the Bible. This program is not a ministry of Brentwood Hills, and we will continue to offer our present midweek ladies' classes on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

While we endorse the use of our facilities for the Bible study, it is not necessarily an endorsement of any specific teaching or interpretation that might be presented. However, many of our members have long participated in these in depth studies and have found them most helpful.

Thus, we are pleased to allow BSF to use our facilities during this school year.
