OUR FAMILY NEWS

JONATHAN'S JOURNEY

ROOM IN THE INN

Last night wrapped up another year of Brentwood Hills hosting Room in the Inn. If my research is correct, this completes the 22nd year that we have served in this ministry. That means (give or take a few) that we have had right at 440 nights that we have served over 6,500 homeless folks—with over 1,320 meals served, counting dinner, breakfast, and the snack lunch that we send with each guest. I don't know how many loads of clothes we have washed, how many tooth brushes, pairs of long underwear or socks that we have distributed, but I am sure it runs into the thousands!

Thank you to all of the classes and individuals that have participated in this ministry this year. The leadership of Jeff Hazelip, Steve Moore, Larry Johnson, and Al Carman has made each weekend go smoothly. The time you have spent cooking, serving meals, washing clothes, sitting up beds, donating clothes and supplies has been well worth it and appreciated by many!

Thanks for being Light and Love!
