A WORD FROM WALT

Last Sunday night we read these God-inspired words:

Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit. Ephesians 5:18

Although I am certainly not a Greek 'scholar,' there are four important things we should all know about the Greek phrase Paul uses in this verse - the phrase that is translated "... be filled with the Spirit."

IMPERATIVE MOOD

In other words, being 'filled with the Spirit' is not merely a suggestion or a 'good idea,' it's a command. For an obedient Christian, being filled with the Spirit is non-optional. God knows that in order to survive and thrive we need the Holy Spirit ... not just to be in our lives ... but to fill our lives!

PLURAL FORM

This means that the command to 'be filled with the Spirit' is not restricted to a select few. It is written as an inclusive command for everyone - not only those in the first century but also for those in the twenty-first century.

PASSIVE VOICE

Being 'filled with the Spirit' is not something that we do, but something that is done to us. In other words, in order for us to be 'filled with the Spirit' we must allow it to happen. You might ask, 'How would it even be possible for us to stop it from happening?' Although there are numerous 'yes' answers to that question, for many of us the greatest hindrance to being 'filled with the Spirit' might be that our lives are already filled with other things - pride, fear, ambition, etc., etc., etc.

PRESENT TENSE

'... be filled with the Spirit' is not a one-time command. Instead - and our experience frequently confirms this - we must allow the Spirit to fill us on a continual basis. We receive the Holy Spirit as a gift when we become Christians (Acts 2:38), but that does not guarantee that the Spirit will ever fill us. Furthermore, if and when the Spirit does fill us there is no guarantee we will stay 'filled.' This is a challenge, and an opportunity, we will always have.

Today, as we continue the series "FULL!", we will consider ways to allow the Holy Spirit to fill all of us on a continual basis - enabling us to be obedient to this important command.

FAMILY TIME

Carving the pumpkin can be a simple Christian object lesson. It can be a seasonal tool to illustrate how Jesus rids us of all the messy "goo" (sin) in our lives when we are washed and cleansed (baptized). Then after we are empty of self, He fills us with His light (Holy Spirit). His light shines through our "face" and actions to tell others about the good news: Jesus is our Savior. "...let your light shine before men, that they many see your good deeds and praise your Father in Heaven." Matthew 5:16
Another great fall treat for children (ages 3 - 7) is the book, Parable of the Pumpkin by Liz Curtis Higgs. This story illustrates how a farmer can turn a pumpkin into a glorious sight for others to see the love of Jesus.

OCTOBER 28TH - CLASSES CANCELLED

Our chili/hot dog fellowship meal will be served from 5 - 6 p.m. in the circle drive by the south entrance. Reservations are necessary. The cost is $20/family or $10/individual. (Get your tickets and help support the "Empty Bowl" Project.)
