- Praising God in our public assemblies and private lives, offering ourselves as living sacrifices;
- Identifying and employing our individual spiritual gifts, relying on God's Spirit within us;
- Strengthening our families and serving as extended family to one another;
- Strengthening loving/serving relationships within this Body, our church family; and
- Leading, participating in, and supporting missions of teaching, evangelizing, and caring for others.

A WORD FROM WALT

Every Saturday night during the cold winter months, members of the Brentwood Hills family host 14 men from the Nashville community in the Family Life Center. In addition to 3 meals, these men are given a place to stay the night.

Anthony Herring, one of the men who stayed here last Saturday, wrote the following poem:

A Jar of Clay

At times I feel like a jar of clay,
That my Savior opened and began to mold one day,
And as He began to mold His pot,
I began to do things that I should not.

And suddenly the pot began to crumble,
All because the clay wasn't humble,
But God was all wise and knew I would stumble,
And never once did He even grumble.

He lovingly put me back on the wheel,
And began to perform His magic once more,
Because He had great things and blessings in store.

And now I am almost the piece He desires,
I am just about ready to go in the fire,
To be sealed with His knowledge and wisdom and love,
Never to be the man I once was.

Even though 2009 is over, and Brentwood Hills has a new theme, Anthony's poem was a good reminder that God is (and will always be) the Potter, and we are (and will always be) the clay.

*"The Lord gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 'Go down to the potter's shop, and I will speak to you there.' So I did as he told me and found the potter working at his wheel. But the jar he was making did not turn out as he had hoped, so he crushed it into a lump of clay again and started over."
Jeremiah 18:1-4 (NLT)*

God never gives up on a lump of clay. He will start over as many times as needed until the clay becomes what He wants it to be.

LOVE THANK YOU, MEN'S MINISTRY!

A great time was had by all at the Sweetheart Banquet last night! The "Brentwood Hills Malt Shop" was the place to be as we relived the FABULOUS 1950s! A special thanks goes to the Men's Ministry and all of those who spent hours and hours planning the evening! Can't wait 'til next year!

THE SHIRTS OFF OUR BACK

We need your T-shirts! Next Sunday, February 14th, will mark the beginning of the "Shirts Off Our Back" project. Start your spring cleaning early...clean out your drawers and bring in shirts for the people of Haiti. Look for the collection bins in the foyer next week!
