A WORD FROM WALT

Jonathan is exactly right!

Last Sunday, Jonathan closed both morning services by publicly disagreeing with something that had been said during the sermon.

I had discussed our need for volunteers to work in the children's Sunday School program - both this summer and during the next school year. During the sermon I had mentioned a church in Atlanta that requires more than 1,300 volunteers on any given Sunday to serve those who come for worship and Bible Study. My comments were something like,

"We don't need 1,300 ... but only several hundred volunteers to meet the needs of our children's Sunday School program."

Jonathan very wisely and appropriately "corrected" me by saying,

"We do need 1,300 volunteers ... maybe not all in the children's program, but we need that many people to be involved at Brentwood Hills."

Jonathan is exactly right! Actually, we are currently blessed with 1,253 teens and adults who call Brentwood Hills their church home - in addition to many wonderful folks who "regularly visit." However, to use the analogy that was mentioned last week, some of those 1,253+ are "on the field," others are "on the bench," and still others are "in the stands."

How exciting it would be if (and will be when) 100% of the 1,253+ at Brentwood Hills are strategically involved as volunteers in some aspect of ministry - or at least willing to be? Are there enough needs in our congregation and community - not to mention the world - to require that many people to be involved? Of course there are!

This certainly doesn't mean that every aspect of ministry takes place in the Brentwood Hills building - or even as part of the Brentwood Hills church. However, imagine how many lives can be touched by God if and when all of us at Brentwood Hills are fully engaged in ministry - wherever that ministry happens to be - using the gifts and opportunities God has entrusted to each of us.

"It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

"Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work." - Ephesians 4:11-16

WELCOME, GUESTS!

It is a pleasure to have you worshipping with us today! Please take a moment to sign an attendance card and place it in the collection plate so we can acknowledge your visit. In order to provide a meaningful worship experience for our members and guests, we remind you that our nursery is available for little ones who may become restless or require some other attention during the service. Also, Children's Worship Training meets in our small auditorium at the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services for two-year-olds through the first semester of first grade.

OUR FAMILY NEWS

JONATHAN'S JOURNEY

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH THE PSALMS

Today in our adult classes we will be studying Psalm 51. The introduction and questions are available at the Information Center—as well as the intro and questions for next week's lesson (Psalm 103). Please read the Psalm 103 intro below.

Psalm 103 is a wonderful psalm of praise. Like other praise verses that focus on the grandeur of creation, the verses of this psalm praise God for his forgiveness, healing, compassion, and redemption of mankind. Certainly, the psalm starts with praising God for his power that we observed in our relationship with him as his creation (Verses 1-2), but the remaining verses declare God's wonderful nature of loving his creation which bears his image in light of his covenant (compare verses 8-9 with Exodus 34:6-7). The psalmist calls these attributes of God "benefits." The reasoning is that we benefit from the nature that God expresses by his love and forgiveness. Truly these are gifts granted to those who are under his covenant promises.

Don't forget you can listen to John Young read the Psalms each week on the BHCC website!

Thought for the week:

"Some things to know about-- Marriage and Money:

- You need to know it's important to regularly discuss your financial situation.

- You need to know to pray for wisdom about money.

- You need to know that when things get tough financially, God hasn't departed the scene.

- You need to know that if you live below your means, money will not be an issue.

- You need to know if one person spends like there's no tomorrow, the other person will be scared to death.

"LETTERS TO GOD"

Rarely are there opportunities to recommend a good movie, but this is definitely worth the price of admission! We need to support the film industry when we are presented with quality movies filled with encouragement. A heartfelt tale of inspiration, hope and redemption, Letters to God is the story of what happens when one boy's walk of faith crosses paths with one man's search for meaning – the resulting transformational journey touches the lives of everyone around them.

Inspired by a true story, Letters to God is an intimate, moving and often funny story about the encouraging effect one child's belief can have on his family, friends and community. Your heart will be touched. Be sure to take some tissues! (While it is a family movie, I would not recommend it for young children.)

Be sure to see the Children's Ministry display in the foyer. You have an opportunity to let your light shine! We have been blessed with dedicated teachers for the past 9 months. It's time to give our "school year" teachers a break. Summer quarter begins June 6. Everyone has vacation plans for the summer, but with teaching teams our children can continue to have quality classes. Grab a teaching partner(s) and sign the list! You don't want to miss an opportunity to develop relationships with our children and share the love of Jesus with them.

Many have already requested classes to teach for the next school year. Gather your teaching team and sign this list, too. Both charts will be available to sign. Bonus pay for early recruits! © Look for the display in the foyer. Be Light and Love to our kids!

SOCK IT TO ME
