A WORD FROM WALT

Last Sunday morning, on the memorable day he began his 71st year of preaching, Clarence Dailey (who is preaching this morning in Clarksville) inspired all of us as he recited this poem from his 1947 Founders Day Oratorical Contest speech at Lipscomb - Myra Brooks Welch's The Touch of the Master's Hand:

*'Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But he held it up with a smile:
"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried,
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar, a dollar"; now "Two!
Two dollars, and who'll make it three?
Three dollars, once; three dollars, twice;
Going for three...." But no,
From the room far back, an old, gray-haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow;
Then, wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loose strings
He played a melody pure and sweet
As a caroling angel sings.
The music ceased, and the auctioneer,
With a voice that was quiet and low,
Said: "What am I bid for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand dollars, and who'll make it two?
Two thousand! And who'll make it three?
Three thousand, once, three thousand, twice,
And going, and gone," said he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
We do not quite understand
What changed its worth." Swift came the reply:
"The touch of a master's hand."
And many a man with life out of tune,
Who's battered and scarred with sin,
Is auctioned cheap to the thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.
A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine;
A game--and he travels on.
He is "going once, and "going" twice,
He's "going" and almost "gone."
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul and the change that is wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.*

OUR FAMILY NEWS

JONATHAN'S JOURNEY

THE 71ST YEAR...

Last Sunday night was so special! Brother Dailey kicked-off his 71st year of preaching with a powerful sermon here at BHCC, and the reception afterwards was a great time of fellowship with old and new friends. Brother Dailey wrote this note to the BHCC family:

As I have said to several, "You would think that someone who has been "Speaking" for seventy years would know exactly what to say in expressing his appreciation for what you all have done for Mary and me during the past several days. I'm still totally incapable of doing it as I would like. I do, however, want to try!

I'm grateful to the elders and to Walt for giving me the opportunity to speak at our evening worship last Sunday. I was overwhelmed by the number of people who came! Many old friends (and new ones) came from the Nashville area and from several other cities.

The reception you gave for Mary and me after the service was wonderful! The good food you brought, and the many expressions of your love thrilled us both. Then – the beautiful new TV receiver overwhelmed us. I had asked Jonathan if he had any suggestions on TV repair or replacement, and you saw what came of that! That man absolutely amazes me with the multitude of surprising and wonderful things he does!

Thanks to all of you, not only for Sunday night, but for many years of unconditional love and support. You are a wonderful spiritual family, and Mary and I want you to know that we love you from the depths of our hearts! - Clarence

Thank you, Brother Dailey, for sharing your passion for the Lord with us! We look forward to the rest of Year 71...and beyond!

SUMMER BAPTISMS

An updated list of summer baptisms is available at the Info Center. Be sure to pick one up today! Please continue to encourage and pray for these young people as they continue on their journey!

COUNTDOWN TO FALL

It's hard to believe that summer is over! What an incredible summer it has been...Nashville Workcamp, VBS, Camp Shiloh (twice!), Impact, Brentwood Hills Christian Camp 24, Honduras, and so much more! Many, many people have worked to make this summer one of the best that BHCC has ever had. We appreciate our interns, Amy and Casey, for their work, and we wish them all the best as they start back to school! To all of those who participated in any summer activity this year – whether it be as a participant, volunteer, or prayer warrior – THANK YOU! None of what goes on at BHCC would be possible without the support of the family here.

As we get ready for "Back to School," let's all remember to be in prayer for all of our students, parents, and teachers. They will have the opportunity to be light and love to so many during the 2010-2011 year!

Have a great week as you are sharing Light and Love on your Journey to the Son!

You Are Mine, I Am Yours
You are mine.
I am yours.

You are mine.
I am yours.

TEACHER SIGN UP

Teaching in my son's Bible class was a great experience. I was able to get to know his friends better, learn about other children his age, and grow closer to him. I look forward to doing it again!
~Jennifer Mankin

I love teaching the 12-18 month olds. It's neat to watch them in their first class with real chairs and watch them learn our simple little lesson about how God loves them and how He made this big wide world. We clap and get very excited when we read in their Bible that "God loves Kate," for example, and it's so fun to watch them eventually start clapping just as the Bibles are handed to them!
~Sara Walker

We're busy planning for our new classes that will begin in 4 weeks and we need teachers! Our children had great Bible class experiences last year because of our wonderful teachers who committed to teach for the school year.

Find another couple or a few friends and form a teaching team. It's easy to rotate on a monthly or quarterly basis, and then you can teach and stay connected with your adult Sunday School class. Contact me if you have any questions or concerns. Please stop by the board in the foyer under the large red sign to sign up to teach!

BACK TO SCHOOL.....

Many of our children will head back to school this week and next. Please remember we do not promote our Bible classes until Sunday, September 5. Watch for more details regarding a special back to school activity on Wednesday, September 1.

PACK THE PANTRY DAYS

The Brentwood Hills Benevolence Team has designated Sundays, August 8th and 15th as "Pack the Pantry" Day. Many people in Nashville do not have enough food to eat. Members of Brentwood Hills are generous and are often called upon to furnish food snacks to the Hungry Tummys in our community. During the school year, our children bring canned goods to fill the pantry, but this summer, the need has more than doubled and our pantry is empty! If every person will bring just one item, we will "Pack the Pantry" and have enough extra food to share with other areas of Nashville. Please plan to bring that item and place it on the tables that will be set up in the hallway and foyer. Thanks for "following in his footsteps" and feeding the Hungry Tummys in our city! Needed items are:

- Spaghetti Sauce
- 1# Boxes of Spaghetti
- Macaroni & Cheese
- Canned Vegetables & Beans
- Jam/Jelly
- Tuna/canned meat
- Cereal
- Soup
- Fruit
- Ravioli, etc.
- Instant Potatoes or Rice
