If you would like to pray, just leave the auditorium during the invitation song and come to the prayer room. At other times, feel free to call the office to arrange a meeting.

A WORD FROM WALT

"Praise God for the blessing of corporate worship!"

The letter below is from a member of the Brentwood Hills family, describing feelings resulting from our recent "Worship in Song" on August 22. These thoughts are both insightful and encouraging:

I want you each to know how deeply moved I was by last Sunday night's singing service. I'm not sure that I have ever experienced such a sense of true community in worship. It is no secret that Brentwood Hills is blessed to have many members with remarkable singing talent, but last week, there was a deeper loveliness to our typical blend of beautiful voices; and that was the harmony of sincere hearts pouring out our offering to God. The Spirit was moving, I believe. It was a sweet, sweet sound. We were a collection of broken souls reaching out in hope for the perfection and healing of our God.

As I sang, or should I say attempted to sing through my tears, I was encouraged as I looked around at my spiritual family - many of whom had eyes closed, or heads bowed, or heads nodding in agreement with the words - singing of their longing to be nearer, still nearer to God. I saw you who have been wounded by recent deaths in your families, you whose hearts have been torn by struggles with infertility or miscarriage, you who have been bruised over and over by battles with addictions yet continue to fight, you who have been beaten down by unfaithful or abusive earthly family members - I saw you earnestly and deliberately sing, "It is well with my soul," and I believed you. I watched you who have bravely battled alongside your children that struggle with disability, you who have chosen to serve the poor, the lonely, the outcast, the difficult to love with your time and your hearts instead of seeking worldly fame and fortune, you who have continued to seek God in the face of burdens far heavier than any I have known, sing, "Lord, reign in me, in my darkest hour," and I was connected to you. We were a group of equals - equally searching and equally longing for our true home.

In scripture, we are called to teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, as we sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in our hearts to God. You did this and you do this for me. I was edified, I was encouraged, I was accepted, I was admonished, I was empowered. Praise God for the blessing of corporate worship! Thank you for reminding me that not only are we communing with God in worship, but we commune with each other, as we in one voice lift our broken hearts to the healer and lover of our souls. Thank you for helping me to truly worship.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

It is a pleasure to have you worshipping with us today! Please take a moment to sign an attendance card and place it in the collection plate so we can acknowledge your visit. In order to provide a meaningful worship experience for our members and guests, we remind you that our nursery is available for little ones who may become restless or require some other attention during the service. Also, Children's Worship Training meets in our small auditorium at the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services for two-year-olds through the first semester of first grade.

OUR FAMILY NEWS

JONATHAN'S JOURNEY

55 DAYS OF PRAYER...

...leading up to our 25 Hours of Prayer - November 6, 2010!

The first meeting of the Brentwood Hills family was in 1955...55 years ago. God has blessed this congregation for the past 55 years, and we want to spend the next 55 days praising Him, thanking Him, and asking for His guidance and blessings on our future!

For the next 55 days - beginning tomorrow, September 13 - we will provide a different prayer theme leading up to our 25 Hours of Prayer. These themes will be posted on the web (brentwoodhills.org), in the Daily Sonshine, and here in the Highlights.

Our 25 Hours of Prayer will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 6. NEW this year - we are looking for Hourly Hosts. Each hour will have an individual, couple, Sunday School class, or Ministry that will serve as the hosts and organizers of that hour. It will be the responsibility of the hosts to help recruit prayer warriors and to help carry out the prayer theme for the hour.

Shift Commanders will still be needed to help organize snacks, sign people in, take pictures, and update the website, among other things.

When the sign-up sheets are posted, be sure to sign up for our 25 Hours of Prayer and submit prayer requests at the Info Center or by sending us an email.

Beginning tomorrow, let's join together as a family for 55 Days of Prayer. We might not be able to get involved with every ministry at BHCC, but we can all pray.

Prayer themes for Week 1:

Monday, 9/13 - That we will be a "praying church," sharing Light and Love

Tuesday, 9/14 - For the English classes at Grandview

Wednesday, 9/15 - For the Elder selection process

Thursday, 9/16 - For the "In the Beginning" Sunday School class

Friday, 9/17 - For the Marriage Mentoring Program

Saturday, 9/18 - For our Cradle Roll classes/families with small children

Sunday, 9/19 - For our Discipleship Study

So many good things are happening here at BHCC...please pray that God continues to bless the work being done in His name. Have a great week!

2010-2011 FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

Sign-up in the Classes or in the Foyer! We've had a great response so far with our sign-ups! We've had many people sign up for the first time ever as well as folks who have been in fellowship groups for many years! This is a great way to develop a closer relationship with other Christians we worship with each week! Fellowship Groups are a way to grow closer to each other as we grow closer to God! Like most everything else of importance in this lifetime, we get out a lot more than we put in. Share yourself and you will gain tremendously more in return!
