If you would like to pray, just leave the auditorium during the invitation song and come to the prayer room. At other times, feel free to call the office to arrange a meeting.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

It is a pleasure to have you worshiping with us today! Please take a moment to sign an attendance card and place it in the collection plate so we can acknowledge your visit. In order to provide a meaningful worship experience for our members and guests, we remind you that our nursery is available for little ones who may become restless or require some other attention during the service. Also, Children's Worship Training meets in our small auditorium at the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services for two-year-olds through the first semester of first grade.

A WORD FROM WALT

"I gave my son to God."

Those are the words of a young father, spoken in the Auditorium Class last Wednesday night at Brentwood Hills. He was describing what he prayed several months before his baby was due to be born, but after doctors had told him and his wife that the odds for their child to even be born, much less survive, were virtually hopeless.

Chad High set the stage last Sunday night when he told about a regular Wednesday morning prayer time for teachers at a local school. Chad really got our attention when he said there have been numerous answers to prayers from that weekly gathering, and that one of his former teachers and her husband would be with us Wednesday night to personally share the story of one of those answers.

Jeff and Julie Tuley came Wednesday to tell "the rest of the story." I won't attempt to even summarize their experience (CDs of their "living illustration" are available through the Brentwood Hills office and the audio is also available on the BHCC website), but their transparency provided a touching and encouraging reminder that:

- God is alive and among us!
- We are surrounded by real people who face real challenges with a real God!
- Prayer can be a powerful source of peace, even in the midst of serious trials!
- When faced with great difficulties, God can provide great blessings!

The Bible is filled with "living illustrations" - stories of real people facing real challenges with a real God - and each of those is shared with us for our instruction and inspiration. In addition, the Brentwood Hills family is filled with "living illustrations" - many that are among us and others that are around us - which also provide wonderful instruction and inspiration. It's a blessing that our elders not only allow but encourage us to share these "living illustrations" - both from Scripture and from our lives!

OUR FAMILY NEWS

JONATHAN'S JOURNEY

Happy New Year! It's wonderful to start another year at BHCC! Lots of exciting things are going on, and it's exciting to think about the year ahead!

DON AND CARMEN MEYER HOST SPECIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

All adults are invited to a special class this morning to hear Don and Carmen Meyer speak and tell their inspirational story of faith. Don spoke yesterday at the Men's Prayer Breakfast, and it was an incredibly moving time together! Don and Carmen have been a wonderful example of determination and perseverance, and this morning's class will be something you won't want to miss. All of our adult classes will be meeting as usual, but everyone is invited and welcome to join Don and Carmen in the Main Auditorium.

CONSTRUCTION PROJECT 2011

Last Sunday Randy Perry shared a presentation which outlined the current construction project. To see his presentation, visit the BHCC website (www.brentwoodhills.org).

While this project is not as extensive as our last construction project, there will still be some "growing pains" that we all have to work around. We have moved a few classes and regular events, and here are just a few things you will need to remember over the next few months:

- The Family Life Center is the new "Youth Wing". We will not be scheduling events in the FLC, and there will be no free play.
- The construction gate is up and will be locked when workers are not present. The north drive beside the building is closed.
- All entrances on the north side of the building are now inaccessible. If you have deliveries for the kitchen (Room in the Inn, Woodbine meals, etc.), please come to the office door.
- PARENTS—Please help us keep your children safe! Any areas under construction are completely off limits.
- The Wednesday night meals will now be served in the foyer.
- The POWER class (Wednesdays at 5:45) will now meet in the Small Auditorium.

We will continue to communicate with the congregation as the construction progresses, and we will continue to evaluate and "tweak" the plan for relocations.

If you have questions about the project or would like more information, please feel free to contact me, Jerry Kennedy, Randy Perry, or Frank McCreary.

God blessed this church family greatly in 2010...and it is exciting to think of what He has in store for 2011! Blessings to you and your family in the New Year! As always, we want to continue Sharing Light and Love on our Journey to the Son!

JOIN OUR FAMILY!

If you are interested in becoming part of the Brentwood Hills church family, please indicate on your attendance card, stop by the Information Center, or see or call Jerry Kennedy at 832-2541 ext 228 or email jerry@brentwoodhills.org. -You need to know that financial security begins with the realization that it's all God's Money. He's just giving you some to manage.

Tuesday, January 11, 2011, 7:00-8:30 pm

The Haitian people have endured a devastating earthquake, followed by a hurricane and finally are in the throes of a widespread cholera outbreak. Mobile Medical Disaster Relief is sponsoring an Evening of Worship and Prayer for the Haitian people who have suffered so much. This is not a fund raising event; only a time for the community of believers to come together to pray for our neighbors in need.
