A WORD FROM WALT

"...be filled with the Spirit." – Ephesians 5:18

In the 56 year history of Brentwood Hills (this congregation first met on Wednesday evening, May 18, 1955), I doubt there's ever been a more encouraging, challenging or transforming congregation-wide study than our current exploration of the Holy Spirit. Although the series officially ends soon, the exploration will continue until Jesus comes.

One of my favorite Holy Spirit passages is the inspired command from Paul in Ephesians 5:18. It's a blessing to remember that Greek scholars tell us there are four important things we should all know about the phrase Paul uses in this verse – the phrase that is translated "...be filled with the Spirit."

IMPERATIVE MOOD

In other words, being "...filled with the Spirit" is not a suggestion or a 'good idea,' but a command. For an obedient Christian, being filled with the Spirit is not optional but essential. God knows that in order to survive and thrive we need the Holy Spirit ... not just to be in our lives ... but to fill our lives!

PLURAL FORM

This means that the command to "...be filled with the Spirit" is not restricted to a select few. It is written as an inclusive command for everyone – not only those in the first century but also for those in the twenty-first century – and that certainly includes us!

PASSIVE VOICE

Being "...filled with the Spirit" is not something that we do, but something that is done to us. In other words, in order for us to be "...filled with the Spirit" we must allow it to happen. You might ask, "How would it even be possible for us to stop it from happening?" For many of us the greatest hindrance to being "...filled with the Spirit" might be that our lives are already filled with other things – pride, fear, ambition, greed, anger, etc., etc., etc.

PRESENT TENSE

"...be filled with the Spirit" is not a one-time command. Instead – and our experience frequently confirms this – we must allow the Spirit to fill us on a continual basis. We receive the Holy Spirit as a gift when we become Christians (Acts 2:38), but that does not guarantee that the Spirit will ever fill us. Furthermore, if and when the Spirit does fill us there is no guarantee we will stay "filled." This is a challenge and an opportunity we will have every day!

WELCOME, GUESTS!

It is a pleasure to have you worshiping with us today! Please take a moment to sign an attendance card and place it in the collection plate so we can acknowledge your visit. Our nursery is available for little ones who may become restless or require some other attention during the service. Also, Children's Worship Training meets in our small auditorium at the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services for two-year-olds through the first semester of first grade.

A Brentwood Hills member would like to hire a part-time nanny for two children, ages 5 and 9. The schedule would be three days a week (Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday) in the afternoon and evening hours at the children's home near West End Avenue. Responsibilities would include pick-up from school and after-school activities during the school year. The summer schedule would also be three days a week. If you are interested, please contact Judy Crumbliss at Brentwood Hills (832-2541, Ext. 230; judy@brentwoodhills.org).

56 YEARS LATER...

The journey began when eleven individuals met to discuss the idea of planting a church in south Nashville. Charles C. Baker, R.O. Beauchamp, Wren Bomar, Carrie Gower, Faulkner Hickerson, Robert Neil, Clarence Reynolds, J.E. Rochelle, Mac Rochelle, John Shacklett, and Gordon Turner had the dream for a new church. That dream became a reality when twenty-seven people gathered for the first time for a mid-week service on Wednesday, May 18, 1955. By Sunday that number grew to fifty-two, and as they say, "The rest is history!"

We are grateful to be celebrating 56 wonderful years as a family here at Brentwood Hills. God has been so good to this congregation, and we praise Him for the abundant blessings He continues to shower upon us!
