Our elders want to be available to pray with you anytime you have a need. At least one elder will be in our prayer room (#302) at the end of each Sunday service. If you would like to pray, just leave the auditorium during the invitation song and come to the prayer room. At other times, feel free to call the office to arrange a meeting.

A WORD FROM WALT

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
Romans 8:28

The Sunday before Thanksgiving (November 20) is when this familiar verse is scheduled to be part of our current Romans study. However, it also applies to the "living illustration" scheduled for tonight.

Last week we began a four-week series of "living illustrations" as part of our regular Sunday evening services. God used Wayne Stephens and his story to open our eyes wider to opportunities all of us have, not only to serve but also to be blessed. Wayne and Karen have received, and continue to receive, priceless blessings as a result of their participation on Wednesday nights in the ministry at the Woodbine Family congregation. It was obvious to all of us that Wayne's passion is far deeper and his joy is far greater than any words could ever express. This Brentwood Hills couple is part of a huge "army" of active volunteers at Brentwood Hills who quietly but effectively serve regularly in the name of Jesus!

Our "living illustrations" continue tonight with an entirely different story - from someone who will be visiting with us from another Nashville area congregation. We'll allow our special guest to share the details and specifics, but in preparation for what they will say I want to call your attention to two simple observations regarding Romans 8:28:

Paul does NOT say that all things are good!

Really bad things can and do happen to really good people. God's people in the Bible ... and today ... are not immune from pain, heartache, failure, loss or even tragedy. We don't have to like it and we may not understand it, but we can't deny it.

Paul DOES say that God works in all things - and "all" includes the bad things!

Satan would love to use the bad things that happen to destroy us, but God wants to use them to develop us. He can and He will! And as Paul writes, this is not speculation or wishful thinking, but something we can "know."

Come tonight at 6:00 p.m. expecting a blessing!

WELCOME, GUESTS!

It is a pleasure to have you worshipping with us today! Please take a moment to sign an attendance card and place it in the collection plate so we can acknowledge your visit. Our nursery is available for little ones who may become restless or require some other attention during the service. Also, Children's Worship Training meets in our small auditorium at the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. services for two-year-olds through the first semester of first grade.

BHCC CHILDREN SERVING OTHERS

It is inspiring to see our children working to help others. Wade Smith was recently a super salesman selling lemonade and brownies to help raise money for a clean water well in Africa. Harris & Lucy Fisher, Colton & Callie Karkau, Lawton & Carolina High, and Annie & Millie Roark have also had a lemonade stand /bake sale to benefit this project.

Team 3:17 continues to raise money for 700 soccer balls for the children in the Guatemala ABC program sponsored by Health Talents. For further info please look for those green shirts!

We are proud of our BHCC children!

MAGI BOXES
